

A Great Deal If You Can Get It.

The Manhattan Hotel, New York, USA

My wife and I stayed for a week in September. This was our second stay here. Both times we were in a one bedroom suite. The suite consists of a separate bedroom with a king bed, flat screen TV, closet, plenty of drawers and a bathroom with tub and shower. Then there is a separate living room with a TV, an eating area, a mini kitchen and another bathroom with a shower. There is daily maid service, good towels and bath amenities. We were on the 25th floor with an east view and windows that opened. The decor is functional, mid-level but clean and more than adequate. On our stay the elevators were running and our limited staff encounters were also fine. I read the mixed reviews. I know they were having elevator problems but they are now ok. Of course, the location is the best. Easy walking distance to MOMA, Lincoln Center, Metropolitan Museum, Central Park, Whole Foods, etc. Plenty of restaurants in walking distance and easy subway and bus access.
