

Good 4 Star!

The Lost City Hotel, Dubai, UAE

11/23/2018

Stayed here for 3 nights. Don't rate as a 5 star hotel, but it is still worth a stay due to its competitive price. Hotel is mad busy (like a Las Vegas hotel) and isn't the best for a chill out holiday. There was nothing really wrong, but you don't feel that special, more like a number! Check-in is manic. Rooms are clean, modern, but maybe a little basic—we had a room with adjoining doors and could hear next doors tv blaring out a lot! Restaurants are expensive but serve good quality food and the service is great. We went to Dolphin Bay and thought it was brilliant. Definitely do the deep water swim, as we saw the shallow water experience going on and it looked not very good. Water park is loads of fun. If you go to Dubai, then definitely do the jeep safari tour. Its brilliant value for money, and that the only time I said that in Dubai, as everything is mega expensive!
