

Awesome hotel with HUGE BEAUTIFUL rooms

The City Hotel, London, UK

This was a fantastic hotel! Very near a tube stop and the Tower of London. There are plenty of places to eat nearby as well. We stayed in a basement room that was great, very quiet and quite large. Hotel had a very cool look and was very clean. The only complaint I had was on the shower (it is separate from a huge tub). Water leaked out onto the bathroom floor so we ended using the bath mat as a water dam to prevent the leakage. The bed sheet was also not really wide enough for the bed but we managed. The free internet was a welcome surprise since many hotels charge ridiculous fees for it.
